Streamlining of Delhi Police

4588. SHRI V. GOPALSAMY: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) what are the details of Station House Officers, Head Constables and Constables who were arrested and suspended, in Delhi for extortion and other crimes during the last three years, year-wise;

(b) whether it is a fact that many bad elements were able to get into the Delhi Police and had been using dubious methods to enrich themselves;

(c) whether Government would consider to conduct periodic review of the police personnel in Delhi to get rid to doubtful and questionable elements;

(d) if so, the details thereof; and

(e) if the answer to part (c) above be in the negative what other steps are being taken to streamline Delhi Police, immediately?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. M. SAYEED): (a) The requisite information is given in the enclosed Statement. (See below)

(b) No, Sir.

(c) to (e) The Delhi Police undertakes periodic review of police personnel suspected of having doubtful integrity. Where warranted, proceedings for compulsory retirement under Fundamental Rule 56(J) are also initiated.

During 1993 and 1994, one Assistant Sub-Inspector, two Head Constables and twenty-one Constables were dismissed from Delhi Police for involvement in various criminal activities.

Exodus of tribals in Tripura

4589. SHRI O. P. KOHLI: Will the Minister of HOME AFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to a news report appearing in the 'Indian Express' dated the 7th April, 1995 under the caption, "Ultras force Tripura tribals to nomadic life";

(b) if so, whether the twin menace of extremists' threats and scarcity of food and work is driving several thousand tribals of the hill regions of Tripura to leave their hearths and homes for the neighbouring areas, causing misery and sufferings to them; and

(c) if so, the emergency measures being adopted by Government to tackle the situation on both the extremists as well as food fronts?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. M. SAYEED): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. Apart from the traditional tribal practice of moving from one place to another on the basis of availability of fertile jhum land, employment opportunities provided as a consequence of Government development works also motivate tribal movement. However, in the recent past some of the tribals of the interior areas of Tripura are reported to have moved to nearby safer places due to increased violent activities of some extremist groups and shortage of food.

(c) The Government of Tripura has already been advised to review the situation immediately and take appropriate remedial measures on all fronts.

Commencement of Indo-Bangala Border survey

4590. SHRI KRISHNA KUMAR BIRLA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the newsitem captioned, "Indo-Bangla border survey commences" as reported in the 'Hindustan Times' dated the 16th Feb., 1995;

(b) if so, whether the survey for setting up of pillars near Bangladesh border has since been completed:

(c) if so, by when the border fencing work will commence and is likely to be completed: and
